

mh.

San Francisco Bay Area, USA

mh. is a tech entrepreneur and philanthropist, who seeks to leave the world better than how she found it. She stumbled upon Turkish drama in 2017 and fell in love with the human stories that come to life in the meandering narratives. Soon after, she joined the Kivanc Tatlitug North America forum and could not leave this world of dizis and its amazing followers.

With a knack for branding and a love for writing, in her spare time mh. finds joy in literary analysis of various shows, strategizing for North America TEN's web content and being lead admin for Cagatay Ulusoy North America (Instagram, Twitter, YouTube). She publishes her written work through her account on twitter @entrespire mh., her husband of 20 years and two young children, enjoy being in nature and head out to the rustic coast of California whenever they can. Through her life's journey, she is learning the art of living in the present, as waiting for the future to happen is exhausting at best.
